ITS HERE! IT'S HERE! FREE FOOD (and shoot).

Summer Range

At last you all get something back for all those months of paying to shoot. This month the shoot is free and everyone gets lunch as well. There will be hot dogs and beans, potato salad and sodas, etc. You will have to provide your own ammo for shooting (in addition to the beans). It has been rumored that we might even see a real mule-drawn chuck wagon. Take a look also at the newly painted sheds.

Memo From The Marshall:

Dear Cowboys and
Cowgirls,

Little by little we are seeing some great improvements to our range. In addition to new knockdowns and a new shed to store them we also acquired a new Texas Star target—courtesy of the estate of JC Holiday. Our thanks to JT Wild for his help in this bequest. We will be using this fun target at Summer Range on the 27th of June. We also appreciate the work of an Eagle Scout candidate (Trevor Billings) and his crew for the new paint job on our two sheds.

They look great. Mike Roueche of Ace Hardware in Kaysville has stepped up to sponsor the painting of the metal container at berm #1.

Once a primer coat and base coat have been applied, Dog

Woman has volunteered to paint a fun storefront on it to give it some old town flavor.

We have several projects in the wings and if you have a desire to be involved please let us know—we need your help. The board is actively involved in planning shoots and activities (and therefore busy otherwise) so don't be shy about volunteering a little time to work on projects. Johnny Montana turned up a half dozen sheets of particle board. We need some one to put the soffets in the main shed and some lining in the con-ex. Please let me know when you have a minute. We are also looking for sponsors for some new loading tables similar to the new one in the main bay. We'd be proud to put their name on it for a mere $200 contribution.

Things are shaping up for a fun summer—if we can just get it to quit raining for a minute.

Regards, Marshall Sly
